Presidential nominees may make their speeches of acceptance, munitions works may blow up, and giant submarines and heat waves may come and go, but the little kiddles at Camp Good Will live through them all with never a thought for the events of the outside world, and only absorbed in doing one thing—having a great big grand and glorious good time.

And this "Georgetown bunch," as they like to style themselves, are certainly having the time of their lives furing their two weeks stay at camp. Every mother and every little bartefoot boy, proud because he can come without his mother, are giad because they are able to spend summer vacations in such a place as Camp Good Will.

That's the way the boys style their present outing, they call it their "vacation." "What do I do when I'm in town, did you say, mister? Why I sell papers, mos" all of us does. Here, simme your paper a minute," and selzing the newspaper the little fellow dart.

Kiddles Have Paper Chase.

The "Georgetown bunch" had their paper chase yesterday afternoon. Each one of the crowds has its paper chase, and the sport is one of the most popular and the aport is one of the most popular of the many provided for the little ones at the camp. Yesterday the boys won. They captured the girls after giving them a start of several hundred yards, and were proud of it, too.

One of the ladies made a batch of cookies, and after the panting boys returned to camp with their shame-faced little captives, the victors were given cookies. One of the boys was designated to hand them among the victorious ones, two to each boy. After he had made his round he had many left over. "Aren't you going to give the girls some?" the lady saked.

"Naw, I sin't goin' to, they didn't win nothin', did they?" The lady had to confess that the girls hadn't won the cookies in the paper chase, but she pravalled upon the boys to share their spoils with the girls, and so every one was happy.

Girls Plan a Coup.

Girls Plan a Coup. The little girls have great plans for outwitting the boys in the paper

The "captains" have invented another game for the boys, as baseball in beginning to be a little tiresome. This new game resembles football very much, the only difference being that instead of tackling the man with the ball they only touch him, and he is "down." The boys are very enthusiastic about this new game, and "Jim Thorp" and other heroes of the gridiron are taking the place of "Christie" and the famed ones of the diamond.

Makes Record Run Over Lincoln Highway-Transmission Sealed.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—The Pathfinder twelve-cylinder ocean to ocean 'high gear' car driven by Walter A. Weldely with transmission sealed by officials of the Automobile Association at San Diego arrived in New York August I at 1:30 p. m., establishing a world's record for high gear ability by crossing the American continent over the Lincoln Highway and under supervision of the Lincoln Highway Association without shifting gears, a total distance of 4:901 miles, and averaging 10 2-10 miles to a gallon of gasolene.

Pathfinder twelve was a standard stock car certified by the American Automobile Association. To prove that a stock ear ratio was used in this Coast to Coast high gear world's record car, and before high gear seals were broken it attained a speed of 60 7-10 miles per hour on Sheepshead Bay speedway with two passengers and trans-continental equipment. This run was made under a sanction granted by the American Automobile Association and observed by A. A. A. officials and New York automobile editors.

Swiss Celebration.

The Swiss Society of the District will celebrate the national holiday of Switzerland Sunday with a basket picnic at the home of John H. Florine, Virginia Highlands.

Gallinger Announces Definite Campaign to Make Cause a Republican Issue.

Following the declaration of Charles E. Hughes for a national suffrage amendment, Senate Republicans are planning to force as seen as possible a roll call on the Susan B. Anthony

A definite campaign to make suffrage A definite campaign to make suffrage a Republican issue, and to emphasize so far as possible President Wilson's opposition to national action, was announced by Senator Gallinger, Republican leader in the upper house.

The first step will be a motion in the Senate to take up and vote on the amendment. Later action may be expected in the House, though whether in the Judiciary | Committee where the amendment lies, or on the floor, has not yet been determined.

"We make no pretensions that Republicans will be solid for the amendment." said Gallinger today. "There are many Senators whose opinions will not be affected by the declaration of the candidate. But enough can be depended upon to show the women voters that if the Republican party were dominant, they would be assured at least of a vote on their proposition."

Baby Dies After Biting Into Core of Golf Ball

NUTLEY. N. J., Aug. 2.—One hour after swallowing poisonous liquid from the core of a golf ball, Marie Vocatquro, fourteen months old, died.

The baby's brother, John, a caddy at the Yountakah Country Club, brought home a golf ball, and after removing the outer shell left it on the floor. Marie picked it up and put it in her mouth, swallowing some of the fluid within it. Although she was rushed to the hospital she could not be saved.

The sale of golf balls with poisonous cores is forbidden in New Jersey.
